

A GUIDE TO FINDING HIDDEN TREASURE IN YOUR JEWELRY BOX

NOT SURE WHAT'S IN YOUR JEWELRY BOX?

Over time we often accumulate a collection of jewelry from family members, gifts or personal purchases. It can be challenging to decipher fine jewelry from costume or fashion jewelry. How do you know if something is real? Does jewelry need to have an appraisal to have value? Can some things increase in value over time? Fine jewelry specialist Stacy Podres can help guide you through these questions and more. You will gain an understanding of the secondary market and the valuation process so you can make educated decisions regarding your jewelry and other luxury goods.

Stacy Podres is an estate and fine jewelry buyer and the District Sales Manager for Marina Diamond & Watch. She works with seniors and their family members to assess fine jewelry, watches, coins and other luxury goods. She understands the sentiment and emotion that is often attached to jewelry and other personal items. She gently guides her clients through the decision making process and helps provide education and clarity on which items to keep, sell, or gift.

In addition to working with individual clients, Stacy is also part of a local dealer's network that facilitates community Road Show events. Stacy and her family live in the beautiful community of Laguna Niguel, although her business often takes her all around Southern California!
